The true character of the 'sainted' Lyra McKee

I was sent a link to a video recording of Lyra McKee going on about that which was the chief purpose of her life, defending and advancing that which God calls an 'abomination' and utterly repudiates in the inspired writing of the apostle Paul in Romans 1:16-32.

I give that link at the end of this article and I would ask readers to listen at least from 9 minutes in until the end.

McKee claims that she met a 'Free Presbyterian' mother, a church attender, in a 'gay bar' where the mother was accompanying her sodomite son in order to support him.

Now, as one who experienced the blessings of the years of what was revival blessing in the 60s and 70s and who still believes in the standards embraced by that generation of Free Presbyterians, I find it hard, indeed almost impossible to believe that a mother who is in truth a 'Free Presbyterian Church attender' could be guilty of such conduct as is here alleged.

While bearing in mind that Lyra McKee belongs to that section of humanity that is 'deceived and deceiving', though her days of being in such a state are now ended, I nevertheless realise that what she said might just possibly be true.

Recently, Rev David McIlveen was quoted by the 'Irish News' in its article on the DUP running its first openly-sodomite candidate in the forthcoming local council elections. I observed in an article I wrote (see here) in response to this news, that Rev McIlveen's comments were, to say the least, ambiguous! He appeared to excuse the DUP's action.

That being so, perhaps other Free Presbyterian ministers are equally guilty of such equivocation. Things have so changed in the FPC since the actions of the late Dr Ian Paisley when he went back on all he had ever professed regarding Sinn Fein/IRA and entered a power-sharing agreement with them in 2007, an arrangement that saw his office, that of the First Minister, taking over the distribution of funding to sodomite organisations, which funding had begun under the previous Direct Rule administration. In the light of those sad events, I would not be surprised that there are those ministers who do not give proper emphasis to the Bible's teaching on this sweeping latter-day plague.

If this is the case and slackness has invaded our pulpits, then it is just possible that a mother, left to her own judgment and bereft of the clear teaching of God's Word, might think she was doing a good thing in supporting her sodomite son by going to a 'gay' bar with him.

I believe that such a scenario is highly unlikely, but I must confess my confidence in it just not being so was shaken by the nature of Rev David McIlveen's reported comments.

There will be FPs who will feel vexed with my 'harping on' about the events of 2007! 'Harping on' was a feature of the ministry and witness of the prophets as they sought to bring home to God's people the folly that had been committed in the land and which was the source of God's displeasure and the cause of the loss of His blessing!

If McKee was telling the truth, and this encounter did take place, then there is cause for grave concern amongst the faithful in the Free Presbyterian Church. I have always said that the infiltration of our ranks by devil-inspired agents is highly likely given the presence of Judas amongst the apostolic band, and that undetected by the other members of that band, John 13:21-15.

Free Presbyterian ministers must strive to emulate the apostle Paul when he said: "Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them," Acts 20:26-30.

If such infiltration took place in those blessed days of Holy Ghost power, how much more likely it is to happen today, amidst the carelessness and apathy and spirit of slumber that is everywhere to be seen amongst God's people!

However, I just hope that this was but another of McKee's lies. At the end of the video she seeks to give comfort to her sodomite friends. How? By wickedly, brazenly and audaciously seeking to pervert the word of God and have the Lord to speak comfortingly to her rebellious community.

She quotes Jeremiah 29:11 from a modern, perverted version of the Scripture. The Authorised Version states that verse so: "For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end."

To whom is the Lord speaking here? To sodomites? Most certainly not!

These words are taken from a letter Jeremiah wrote. To whom did he write this letter? Look at the address at the beginning of the chapter 29. "Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon. . . . Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon," verses 1 and 4.

These words are addressed to the Covenant people of God, that remnant of Judah which had been taken into captivity. God assures that them despite their sins and rebellion, He had not forgotten them. Jeremiah goes on to say: "For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD. For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place," verses 8-10.

The verse 11, so wickedly and perversely applied to sodomites by Lyra (better 'Liar') McKee, is for those who are obedient to God's Word and reject the falsehoods of false prophets and deceivers.

It would be hard to find a more shameless falsification of God's Word than this.

Because of this, I hesitate to give any credence to McKee's claims but it behoves faithful ministers to guard well their pulpits and their flock and 'boldly' preach forth the whole counsel of God!

"Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen," 2 Peter 3:17-18.

"Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this . . ." Jude 1-5.

Sincerely in the cause and covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ,

Rev Ivan Foster (Retired)
