

The Burning Bush - Online article archive

ABORTIONIST'S REJOICING REVEALS THE WICKEDNESS THAT PERVADES THE NATION

by Rev Ivan Foster

A pro-abortion campaigner, Ann Furedi, could not stop from rejoicing publicly over the decision by The British Medical Association's call to decriminalise completely terminations. She has declared that since the decision she "can't stop humming the 1970s disco classic 'Ain't No Stoppin' Us Now'."

Amongst the words of this 'song' are these very significant lines.

"There've been so many things that have held us down
But now it looks like things are finally comin' around, yeah
I know we've got a long long way to go, yeah
And where we'll end up I don't know
But we won't let nothing hold us back."

"And if you've ever been held down before
I know that you refuse to be held down any more, yeah yeah
Don't you let nothing, nothing
Nothing stand in your way."

Pictured: Abortion campaigner Ann Furedi, who said she can't stop humming the 1970s disco classic Ain't No Stoppin' Us Now after the British Medical Association's vote to decriminalise completely terminations.

when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day," 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10.

There were those who expressed their disgust at this woman's depraved delight in the prospect of a greater freedom to slaughter the unborn than is presently possible under the law.

For anyone with a knowledge of the Word of God these sentiments are but a fulfilling of that ancient prophecy in Psalm 2:1-3.

"Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us."

This is a description of the latter-day rebellion of the nations against the laws of God and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, which will provoke the judgment of God upon the rebels at the hands of the Lord Jesus as He returns to this earth in glory and power.

"And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

The Burning Bush - Online article archive

It has been reported in the media that psychologist Dr Michael Scott called the comments 'deplorable'. He added: 'When it comes to bad taste, this is unsurpassed.' House of Lord's crossbench peer, Lord Alton, added: 'Every abortion is a tragedy.'

Lord Alton is correct. Every abortion is a tragedy, indeed it is more than that IT IS MURDER. A Roman Catholic, he has opposed pro-abortion policies, even though his church's view of abortion is not Biblical.

The significance of this decision by the British Medical Association and the rejoicing of this deceived woman, Ann Furedi, are only fully understood in the light of Holy Scripture.

We are told that "In the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection," 2 Timothy 3:1-3.

One of the features of this latter day slide into utter apostasy is a decline in "natural affection".

What encapsulates more such a lack of natural affection than the slaughter of the unborn and the spirit of rejoicing over the prospect of such a thing becoming more readily available?

Of course, we have seen this decline in "natural affection" in so many ways of late. Not just in the legal abortion of the unborn over the last 50 years in mainland Britain, but the brutal murder of infants by mothers and fathers, the brutalising of the elderly in their homes by criminal intruders and even in care homes!

Anyone wishing to understand the full brutality involved in the 'medical procedure' of a modern abortion may do so at this 'Society for the Protection of Unborn Children' site.

<https://www.spuc.org.uk/abortion/methods/reality>