A United Ireland - Is it possible??

"Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up; to make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head" Jeremiah 18:15-16.

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not," Galatians 6:7-9.

Amongst the ranks of the loyalist marching bands and the collarette-wearing Orange men, the matter of a 'United Ireland' is a taboo subject! Likewise, in the loyalist song-singing clubs and gatherings and the meetings of the 'party faithful' in unionist political groups, it is a possibility dismissed and any who might suggest the chance of it happening are likely to be looked upon with disdain and contempt!

But what saith the Scripture? There is not a subject or topic but is addressed and guidance offered to the diligent reader of God's Word.

When we look into this matter in the light of the last fifty years with its religious and political developments here in Ulster, there are conclusions we may, indeed MUST draw which cannot be gainsaid!

I. IN ULSTER THERE HAS BEEN A TURNING OF THE BACK UPON GOD AND HIS TRUTH

Like the proverbial frog placed in a pot of cold water and then increasing heat applied, many have not noticed the dreadful, fatal changes that have been introduced in Ulster within the lifetime of this generation.

I was 5-years-old when the three main Protestant denominations became part of the formation of a religious assembly in August 1948, which was to have a profound and calamitous impact upon our Province in every level of our society.

That "religious assembly" was the World Council of Churches! Its purpose and objective, somewhat hidden behind many deceiving words of allegiance to the Bible and the Lord Jesus Christ, was declared by a Lutheran delegate in a speech in its early deliberations. He said that the purpose of the WCC was to undo the work of the Protestant Reformation and bring about a reunion with the Roman Catholic Church of all who had left her fold under the leadership of the Reformers.

That apostate organisation has faithfully worked to accomplish that objective for the last 72 years!

Evidence of its success is seen all around for those with eyes to see.

1.The general teachings of the Reformers are despised and repudiated in virtually every pulpit of the mainline churches. The Presbyterian Church in Ireland, because of the campaign of opposition to the treachery of the WCC by the Free Presbyterian Church, was forced by a majority of its members to resign from the WCC. Its own website states: "In 1980, PCI left the World Council of Churches (WCC) and the General Assembly declined to join the new British Council of Churches in 1989 with 327 votes for and 453 votes against." However, this 'break' with the ecumenical movement was anything but complete. Again, the website of the PCI tells us : "Being part of the Irish Council of Churches helps to develop a voice for Ireland's churches to connect with each other."

The PCI trailed along in the wake of the WCC and maintained its ecumenical involvement through its membership of the Irish 'branch' of the WCC, 'the Irish Council of Churches'.

Consequently, despite that wave of unease within its ranks back in the 1980s, the PCI today is every bit as ecumenical in its overall activities and involvements and animating spirit as the Church of Ireland or Methodist Church. The PCI, like the other mainline churches, is riddled with Bible-deniers, promoters of modernistic theology, embracers of the vile philosophies of the sodomites and transgenderists. Voices may be raised within its ranks and those of their fellow ecumenical churches, that echo something like a protest against the embracing of evil, but such voices are truly insignificant and basically ignored by the majority within these denominations.

The Burning Bush - Online article archive

2. Naturally, these departures by the pulpits have had their impact upon the pews. What took place in the days of Jeremiah has happened again in our day, under the influence of the falsehoods propagated in the pulpits of ecumenical-embracing churches. "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?" Jeremiah 5:31. Under the preaching of today's false prophets, their congregations, by and large, 'love to have it so'! Ulster has become an ecumenism-loving Province. Every step back to Rome is celebrated in pulpit and press. Every abandoning of the old truths of God's Word and every embracing of the evil corruptions of a world, drunken on the wine of degeneracy and debauchery, is acknowledged with devilish joy.

3. Such abandoning of God's truth has led to the embracing of not only 'new' religious views but also of political views once considered anathema! Within the United Kingdom, we have witnessed this wicked evolution of thought as a result of the turning of the back more and more upon God's Word. The slaughter of unborn children is now accepted as casually as a change in the world of fashion! We have the stain of at least 6 million murdered unborn children upon our nation's record. Nothing is thought of it except in Heaven and amongst the few who see it for what it is!

In like manner, the abominable practice of sodomy and its allied perversions are today hailed as progressive and liberating advances. What challenges the modern assessments of these developments is the dreadful increase of crime of every form on our streets. The infant, the young, the elderly, females, every one who is in any way vulnerable, fears to walk the streets lest they become the latest victims of today's out of control violence.

The reaction of many to the very obviously wise regulations which have come into force as a result of the epidemic caused by the Covid-19 virus, gives evidence of the utterly selfish and rebellious mindset, particularly amongst the younger generation.

This i say is the fruit of ecumenism and its bible rejection!

II. THE BIBLE TEACHES US THAT THOSE WHO TURN THEIR BACK ON GOD WILL FIND THAT HE TURNS HIS BACK ON THEM!

"The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying, Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us. Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah: Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy," Jeremiah 21:1-7.

The Lord has not changed, despite the stupid pontifications of the false prophets in the land. As He is revealed in the Bible so He remains today. As He responded to the sins and unfaithfulness of those who professed allegiance to Him in the past, so He will act again today!

That is why the Bible is ever relevant. It has not lost its germaneness in today's world! It would be most wise to heed it and obey it.

1. We in Ulster have seen the fruit of departure from the Lord in the spiritual realm. I am one of those who can remember days of blessing and what we may rightly and rejoicingly call, days of revival. Days when there was a fulfilling of the prophet's words: "Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?" Isaiah 60:8. Tents, halls and public buildings were filled by a people eager to hear the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Souls were saved in large numbers and new congregations formed. Crowds thronged God's house early in order to get a seat. Overflow gatherings were common. I can recall in my own experience, loudspeakers being placed outside the old tin hut in Lisbellaw in order that those unable to get in and having to remain outside, could hear the message being preached inside.

Glory days which we humbly rejoice over without the slightest notion that those who witnessed such days contributed to their wonders. It was all the Lord's doing!

BUT it is not so today! Even where faithful preaching takes place, there is not the evident blessing of God following it. 'The glory has departed'! WHY. The answer is found in Joshua 7:10-12. "And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face? Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you."

So it is today. There has been a transgressing of God's covenant, even amongst those who have tried to remain separated from the evil activities of the ecumenists. Sin has crept in amongst good people. There has been a taking of that forbidden of God and hiding it "even among their own stuff."

There has to a degree been a learning of "the way of the heathen," Jeremiah 10:2. Worldly, immodest fashions have been adopted and tolerated by those who should have spoken out against such a thing. The Sabbath is desecrated and again no protests raised. Parents have failed their children with the result that their place in God's house is vacant as they gallivant over to worldly events on the Lord's Day and father and mother, because of their lapse in proper discipline in early days, are now helpless to stop such behaviour!

Professing Christians, indeed, office-bearers in God's house, openly, unashamedly belong to organisations which blatantly embrace practices which defy God and His truth. Christians from different denominations support political parties which support, aid and promote sodomy as a legitimate life-style in daring defiance of God!

We have it amongst the ranks of Free Presbyterianism. Is it any wonder that we do not have the presence, the blessing of God that once we knew? The obedience that resulted in times of past blessing is now abandoned and counted unnecessary and foolishly old-fashioned.

Little do such foolish people know that God is 'old-fashioned'! "I am the LORD, I change not," Malachi 3:6. His name is "I AM THAT I AM", the immutable, unchanging and unchangeable God.

Because the Lord has not changed, those who have departed from Him are reaping the consequences of their sins that He said would take place. "Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts," Jeremiah 2:19.

That is what the Free Presbyterian Church is beginning to reap and which, if it does not heed the Lord, will reap in increasingly greater measures!

2. We have, in consequence of our spiritual departure, been reaping a social and political harvest. There is none of the older generation who would dispute that fact that social behaviour and attitudes have utterly changed since their younger days! A lack of common courtesy, deference toward others, utter selfishness and shameful indifference toward any idea of community responsibility, have reduced our once relatively safe and peaceful land into a cesspool of public indecency and outrageous behaviour. Dare to protest against the outrage and you will find yourself threatened with violence, indeed, likely to suffer violence, as almost daily we hear of such incidents.

The Burning Bush - Online article archive

In the realm of politics, we have seen us slip more and more under the evil dominance of the murderous Sinn Fein/IRA and their anti-Protestant allies, the SDLP and Alliance parties.

To think that those who openly engaged in a prolonged campaign of murder against the Protestant community are now in undisputed power in Stormont, and that by the compromise and compliance of the leading Unionist party, the DUP, which once boasted of its determination to smash Sinn Fein! Instead of doing that they aided and abetted them in their invasion of Stormont and the seizing of the position of Deputy First Minister. From the position, they presided over the gradual demise of the DUP from its position of dominance to one of subservience.

At every turn, Sinn Fein has promoted the cause of a United Ireland. By the imposition of cross-border institutions and bodies which exercise power over us here to the crisis generated by the Covid-19 pandemic, Sinn Fein has unrelentingly sought to push their agenda upon us.

They recently defied the very 'social-distancing' laws which they jointly introduced with the DUP, at the funeral of IRA terrorist, Bobby Storey. Much criticism was directed at Sinn Fein's Stormont Deputy First Minister, Michelle O'Neill. The condemnation was shaken off with the proverbial water-shedding abilities of the duck! Even when the Stormont Assembly united to condemn those Sinn Feiners who defied the 'social-distancing' regulations, and called for an apology from Michelle O'Neill, this was disdainfully ignored and, sadly, the DUP lamely aided this by engaging in Stormont business as if nothing had happened instead of calling a total halt to all business until O'Neill apologised. By so acting, the DUP demonstrated their powerless, shackled state!

Within days of the controversy, O'Neill was demanding that those travelling from other parts of the United Kingdom to us here in Northern Ireland, should be made to quarantine for 14 days, as is the case with nearly all foreign visitors. For her and her party to make such a demand in the wake of her utter defiance of the regulations in place to hinder the spread of the coronavirus indicates the total absence of any regard for the truth or any sense of shame at demanding of others what she herself had with derision refused to do. There is no place for truth in the make-up of Michelle O'Neill or the body of Sinn Fein adherents any more than it has in the being of the devil, who "abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it," John 8:44.

The demand for the quarantining of fellow UK citizens who travel to us here in North Ireland is but another ploy in Sinn Fein's unceasing attempt to put a difference between Northern Ireland and the rest of the UK.

It might be said that sadly, they have been aided in this by the British Government and its plan to move the borders between the Republic of Ireland and the UK from the present border around the six counties of Northern Ireland to a border that separates us here from the rest of the UK in an effort to placate the EU and its demands as the date of the UK's withdrawal from the EU draws near.

Furthermore the absence of effective opposition by the DUP to London's scheme to move the border into the Irish Sea, has further aided Sinn Fein's aggressive demands.

3. I believe that there is a large body of those in the 'Unionist' camp who being under the influence of ecumenism for their lifetime, would have no real distress at the prospect of entering into a united Ireland! Back in the earlier years of the last century, our Protestant forefathers declared their opposition to 'Home Rule', something the London Government was determined to grant in response to Irish nationalists' demands. The slogan chosen by our father which aptly summed up their reasons for opposition to 'Home Rule' was : 'Home Rule is Rome Rule'!

The Burning Bush - Online article archive

In other words, if the Protestants of the north-eastern counties were placed under a government based in Dublin it would place them under an almost exclusively Roman Catholic government. This their Protestantism would never permit. There live still in the collective memory of Ireland's Protestants the atrocities Roman Catholics had committed against our forefathers in the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries. They were not going to place themselves under the perpetrators of such crimes against their ancestors.

They were successful, by the mercy and grace of God, in their opposition and the Northeastern six counties, now called Northern Ireland, were excluded from the final 'Home Rule' settlement, and we remained within the UK.

However, ecumenism has destroyed that memory of the true nature and character of Rome. The nature of Rome has been whitewashed by the brush of ecumenism and the record of its centuries of crimes against the people of the Bible has been buried. Rome is now regarded as just another branch of Christ's true Church, whereas in truth she is an amalgam of Antichristian doctrines and teachings! Like Israel of old, Ulster 'Protestantism' has embraced her inveterate enemies and called them friends.

"How doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary! She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies. Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits. The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy. And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer. Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths. Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward," Lamentations 1:1-8.

This is what the future holds for ecumenically deceived and drugged Ulster.

III. THE BIBLE BELIEVER, AS WITH JEREMIAH AND THE BAND OF FAITHFUL SOULS LONG AGO, MAY REST AT EASE AT THE PROSPECT OF A UNITED IRELAND.

1. What comforted Jeremiah and his friends was the direct revelation of God's promise to them.

"The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction," Jeremiah 15:11. Yes, Judah had brought this judgment upon itself. They would go into captivity under their ancient enemy for they had sinned against the Lord and had long rejected His repeated offers of mercy. However, in that captivity, the believing faithful remnant would be guarded and cared for. We have an example of this care and protection seen in the lives of Ezekiel, Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, Abednego, Mordecai, his cousin Esther, Ezra and Nehemiah, to name but a few.

For this reason the people of God can rest easy no matter what is the fallout of Ulster persisting in apostasy and defiance of God and His Word.

2. Furthermore, the child of God has the unfolded plan of God for the last days of this age before them in prophecy.

The increasingly evil times that we see breaking forth in the last 30 years, should not come as a surprise or as a terror to the student of the Bible. From the dawn of time, the people of God have been told that such times would come just prior to the glorious and triumphant return of Christ. I quote one of the oldest prophecies in the Bible, even though it is recorded in the last book of the New Testament but one. "And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him," Jude 14-15. The 'these' that Enoch was referring to all the way back in the days of Adam, are the evil infiltrators, the agents of the devil, who throughout the ages have "crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus " Jude verse 4. Their troubling of the people of God will end, as Enoch reveals, when, "the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

Some two millennia after Enoch, Paul wrote: "And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day," 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10.

Again note the second coming of the Lord Jesus is the hope of the child of God and also marks the end of the power of the haters of Christ and His people. A terrible end awaits them while an unspeakable glory awaits the believer.

3. It is commonly believed amongst those who take God's word as being a plain and literal statement of His purpose throughout the ages, that the island of Ireland will not be part of the dominion of the Antichrist, depicted in Revelation 13. The Bible tells us that in the purpose of God, four great empires would dominate that territory in which He has particularly chosen to work out His purpose for His people Israel. Those empires have been the Babylonian, the Medo-Persian, the Greek and the Roman empires. These truths are revealed to us in Daniel chapter 2. It will be noted that the final empire, the Roman Empire, will still be in existence in the form of a ten-kingdom alliance in the day when Christ returns.

Daniel explains the dream that Nebuchadnezzar, had but which he could not understand until Daniel elucidated it to him by the wisdom given him of God. "This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth," verses 32-35.

Then Daniel laid out the meaning of the dream.

"This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure," verses 36-45.

The Burning Bush - Online article archive

The falling of "the stone (that) was cut out without hands" upon the feet of the image, refers of course to the return of the Saviour and the setting up of His kingdom, referred to in Zechariah 14:4 and 9. "And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east . . . . And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one."

The Kingdom of the Antichrist is made up of the kingdoms of ten kings. "And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. . . . For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled," Revelation 17:12-13,17.

The fact that the Roman Empire will be in the form of a ten-kingdom federation when the stone falls upon it and "brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold" indicates that just such a political/commercial/religious entity will have been developed just prior to the Saviour's return within the territory of the Roman Empire. The duration of this kingdom of antichristianity is short. "And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months," Revelation 13:5. Forty-two months is 1260 days or three and a half years. The student of the Bible knows that this period is referred to on many occasions and it refers to that dreadful period of the final rebellion of man against God.

At the end of that short period, the Lord Jesus shall return and destroy Antichrist and his forces. And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

"And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?" Revelation 6:12-17. Revelation 19:11-21 gives us a fuller account of that revealed in the above verses.

Now, when we see this formation and establishment of this political structure within the territory of the old Roman Empire we know that the return of Christ is near. The present disintegration of the 'European Union' will not end man's ambitions for such multinational greatness. The ambition manifested at Babel long ago, is alive and well today. And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth," Genesis 11:3-4.

The removal of the EU is but, I believe, to make room for the final empire of rebellion to be built.

What does this mean for us here in Ulster? Well, it is a fact of history that neither Scotland nor Ireland were in the old Roman Empire. Neither will they be in the final manifestation of that empire. There will be changes in Ireland, some of which may not be to our immediate pleasing. However, God has always worked out His purpose for good for His people through events that at first seemed to spell catastrophe. Calvary is the supreme example of this.

The Burning Bush - Online article archive

No matter what happens here politically, under the sovereign hand of God it will work to our good, no matter what the devil and his crowd had hoped to achieve. Please remember those glorious words in Romans 8:28. "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

These words are very true for us individually or corporately for all the people of God.

Believe them and cling to them, dear Christian, as we soon enter the dark times.
