

The Burning Bush—Online article archive

A pleasant surprise for minister and his wife

Rev. David and Mrs.
Jennifer Creane

On Friday, 14th November, Lurgan Free Presbyterian Church organised a surprise dinner in the Craigavon Civic Centre to mark the 25th anniversary of the installation of Rev. David Creane as minister of the congregation. Rev. David and Mrs. Creane were more than surprised to be ushered into the midst of some 250 guests who had been assembled under strict secrecy for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Creane were anticipating a quiet meal with their immediate family members, but instead found themselves amongst their family and their friends from the congregation as well as a large number of Mr. Creane's ministerial brethren.

Following a delightful meal, the guests of honour were presented with various gifts and tokens of the love and esteem of the congregation.

Vice-Chairman of Craigavon District Council, Councillor David Simpson presented Mr. Creane with some Council memorabilia and Mrs. Creane with a bouquet of flowers.