A further reply to a sodomite

Below is an image of COLin Nevin's latest letter that appeared in the Belfast Newsletter June 11th, 2019.

Sir,

Mr Nevin is exceedingly expert in producing obscurity!

If I am not mistaken, he is now telling us that the word translated 'men' in Genesis 19:4 is correctly translated in the Authorised Version though he did say in an earlier letter it should be 'people'!!

It is difficult, if not nigh on impossible to hold a sensible, never mind profitable, exchange with someone who changes horses mid-stream!

The real core of Mr Nevin's letter-writing objective is to blind everyone to that which he has blinded himself - namely, that sodomy is abominable thing, hated of God.

It is true that many in society are ready to share his view and the Saviour tells us that many more will, Luke 17:28-30.

Here in Ulster we have seen the DUP alter its position from one of being anti-sodomy to being pro-sodomy, as is evidenced in its endorsement of the lifestyle of Alison Bennington the DUP councillor!

But, no matter how many may be persuaded by Mr Nevin's misleading arguments or swayed by the DUP's change of mind, the Bible's position has not changed.

Sodomy is as abomination in God's eyes and true Christians share that view!

"Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination," Leviticus 18:22.

No words that I may employ to describe sodomy can exceed what God has to say of this vile and disgusting perversion. I stand with Peter who spoke of the life-style of the sodomite as "the filthy conversation of the wicked," 2 Peter 2:7. The word 'filthy' embodies the English words, 'unbridled lust, excess, licentiousness, lasciviousness, wantonness, outrageousness, shamelessness.'

I doubt very much that Mr Nevin will be comfortable with these words, used by the Holy Spirit, to describe his perverted lifestyle! If he is prepared to accept the use of such words, then we must ask why would he uphold a life-style so described and condemned of God?
