

The Burning Bush—Online article archive

Trimble leads his supporters to surrender.

Dr. Ian Paisley—Leader of the opposition to the sell out

The recent vote in the Northern Ireland Assembly in favour of a power-sharing government, with the foreign Irish Government given a statutory role in the internal affairs of this part of the United Kingdom, saw Unionism split down the middle with all Trimble unionists, with the exception of Peter Weir, voting in favour of the betrayal of the Province. In the vote, 29 unionists supported David Trimble and 29 supported Dr. Ian Paisley's opposition to the sell-out. But since IRA/Sinn Fein and John Hume's SDLP as well as a handful of independents and the two representatives of loyalist terrorists, Irwin and Hutchinson of the PUP, were in coalition with Trimble, the overall vote was 77 to 29.

MURDERERS

Unrepentant murderers now stand on the threshold of cabinet office in a Northern Ireland government. For over seventy years they have campaigned to destroy our country by murder and terror. Now thanks to the treachery of David Trimble and his supporters, they have been given the opportunity to do it from the inside while drawing a government minister's salary! All this they have been given and still they have not renounced violence and murder nor surrendered one item from their terrorist arsenal of guns and explosives. That David Trimble could be jubilant at such a victory, as was reported in the Belfast Telegraph of 17/2/99, is hard to understand.

The new Northern Ireland Assembly—the setting for David Trimble's surrender to terrorism

DANCING ON GRAVES

By this vote, Trimble and his party jubilantly danced on the graves of those who had been murdered and mutilated since the 16th century in the defence of the freedom Protestantism had given us here in Ulster. It will not be long until the full consequences of what Trimble Unionists have done will begin to be felt in our land. A harvest will spring up from the seeds planted by ecumenists and watered by Trimble that will prove bitter indeed. Our prayer is that God will not forsake His people, but visit them with revival, in the midst of that harvest.