

The Burning Bush—Online article archive

Christian School News

Mr. Geoffrey Ewart, who teaches Science, Maths and Computer Studies in Clogher Valley and Newtownabbey Christian schools, obtained a Bachelor of Science degree from the Open University earlier this year. Geoffrey is the thirteenth teacher to graduate from the Free Presbyterian Teacher Training Course. Rather belatedly, we offer in print our warmest congratulations to Geoffrey. Mr. David Wilson, who has taught in our Portadown school for 8 years, leaves with his wife Anne and children, Emma (4), Sarah-Jane (3) and Philip (1) for the Ivory Coast on 12th November. He will take up a position teaching in the New Tribes Missionary school in Yamoussoukro. A farewell service was held in Bethany Free Presbyterian Church, Portadown on Thursday 22nd October where gifts were presented and appreciation expressed on behalf of the school by Mrs Diane Haffey BEd, the principal of Portadown Christian school. Rev. Ivan Foster was the guest preacher.

New members of staff

Trainee teachers, Miss Joanne Gibson, Mrs Diane McKew and Mrs. Ruth Daly have joined Bangor, Portadown and Kilskeery schools respectively. Mrs. Joan Parkes, who graduated from Queens University a number of years ago, and Miss Eveline Compton, home on furlough from Senegal, have begun as part-time teachers in Newtownabbey school.

We ask our readers to remember daily our schools, the pupils and the staff in prayer.