Rebel priest announces that he is a sodomite

Pat Buckley, the rebel who has proclaimed himself a Roman catholic Bishop and a sodomite!

The 47-year-old priest claimed that he had been sexually abused when he was a youngster and had been propositioned 'quite a lot' when he was training to be a priest at Clonliffe Seminary in Dublin. He also claimed that within a year of being ordained as a priest he was propositioned by 'two people who held the rank of Bishop and two people who held the rank of canon.'

He said in a BBC interview that he did not rule out sodomite relationships in the future. His announcement does two things.

First of all it must cause the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church in Ireland to squirm a little more uneasily at the prospects of further revelations from this renegade.

Secondly, it reveals to all, those within and those without the Church of Rome, what a cesspit of iniquity it is!

It is reported in the USA, that for the third time in just over a year, a high-ranking cleric within the Roman Catholic Church has been driven out of office because of scandal. It is estimated that over $1 billion has been paid out to victims in settlements in the USA alone. A Californian bishop became the eighth of his rank or higher to resign.
