Is this when Rev David Armstrong met with Dr Paisley?

Rev David Armstrong and Dr Paisley. Dana and Dr Paisley at the Stormont book launch.

Pictures don't lie, they used to say. However, the adage is no longer absolute in this day of digital manipulation. They can tell the truth nevertheless and point to something that others would rather conceal and even give an important testimony in such a matter. The two pictures of Dr Paisley, one in the company of Dana and the other in the company of Rev David Armstrong have a number of points in common. Dr Paisley's tie and his poppy for instance!

They suggest that the two pictures were taken on the same occasion, the launching of the singer's autobiography in Stormont at the beginning of November. Dana recently sang in a special concert run jointly by David Armstrong's Church of Ireland parish of St Mary's and the Roman Catholic parish in Carrigaline, Co. Cork as this notice in the "Newsletter" of Cobh & Glanmire parish indicates.

Celebration with Dana!
This unique concert hosted jointly by St Mary's Parish Church and St John's Catholic Church, Carrigaline will take place on Friday 30th November at 7.30pm in the Church of Our Lady and St John, Carrigaline.

Whatever and whoever has changed in Ulster of late, it is not the aims and objectives of the ecumenical movement and its key players.
