Interview with Ballymena priest who led in prayer at ecumenical service attended by Dr Paisley

"Father" Paul Symonds

The following audio file is of an interview broadcast today on BBC Northern Ireland programme called "Talk Back".

It is with a Roman Catholic priest who conducted an ecumenical thanksgiving service for the Boy Scouts organisation in Ballymena, Co. Antrim at which Dr Paisley, the First Minister of the Northern Ireland Assembly was the guest. The priest is called Paul Symonds of All Saints RC chapel, Ballymena.

(See - Who is this man Paul Symonds - <http://www.takeheed.net/PaulSymondsJesuit.htm>).

In the interview, Symonds states that Dr Paisley knew that he (Symonds) would be at the event and would be leading in prayer when he accepted the invitation to speak.
